DANCE LEVELS

which level is right for me?

9-12 INT

Most dancers have at least: 6 years of dance experience

- Takes at least 2-4 classes per week
- Able to do double turns, leaps, the fundamentals of ballet and jazz and retain choreography
- You must also be taking ballet to be in an Intermediate level jazz and/or lyrical class

9-12 ADV

Most dancers have at least: 8 years of dance experience

- Takes at least 3-5 classes per week
- All the above, plus more complex leaps, turn sequences and choreography
- You must also be taking ballet to be in an advanced level jazz and/or lyrical class

TEEN INT

Most dancers have at least: 10 years of dance experience

- Takes at least 4-6 classes per week
- All the above, plus growth mindset and developing artistry and strong technique
- You must be taking ballet to be in a teen Intermediate level jazz and/or lyrical class

TEEN ADV

Most dancers have at least: 12 years of dance experience

- Takes at least 5-8 classes per week
- All the above, plus be self motivated and have solid artistry in addition to solid technique.
- You must also be taking ballet to be in a teen advanced level jazz and/or lyrical class

still not sure which level is the right one?

OPEN level is for dancers new to that age group, that can't or don't want to do the required other classes OR if that time works best for you, then open level for your age is for you!

The LDC team of teachers will make sure your dancer is placed in the right level for their personal dance journey.

There are MANY factors that go into class placements and each dancer's dance path is unique to them.

The guidelines to the left are just that...guidelines. But It's a great place to start if you aren't sure.

We ask that your TRUST the LDC teaching team and that we will adjust levels as needed based on what will be both a challenging and motivating level for your dancer(s).
